REGULATION
ON THE MANNER OF DETERMINING THE FULFILMENT OF CONDITIONS FOR OBTAINING APPROVAL FOR ORGANISING A PRIZE GAME IN GOODS AND SERVICES AND THE MANNER OF REPORTING ON THE RESULTS OF THE PRIZE
GAME

(Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia, No. 152/20)

The basic text comes into force from 26/12/2020, the application of this regulation comes into force from 26/12/2020.

Article 1

This regulation specifies the manner of determining the fulfilment of conditions for obtaining consent for the organisation of a prize game in goods and services, as well as the manner of reporting on the results of the prize game.

Article 2

- (1) The organiser may organise exclusively in their own name and for their own account no more than four prize games in a calendar year, with the consent of the Games of Chance Administration (hereinafter: the “Administration”) obtained beforehand for each prize game individually, and they cannot organise two prize games at the same time.
- (2) The prize game may last for a maximum of 45 days, including the day of the prize draw.

Article 3

- (1) The consent for organising the prize game is given by the decision of the Administration, which also determines the amount of the fee for organising in the amount of 25% of the total value of the prize fund.
- (2) The profit fund is the sum of the individual market values of the goods and services that make up the prize fund and is proven by authentic documents (including proforma invoices, invoices, price lists, pre-contract or sales contracts and other evidence proving the value or price of the goods and services).

Article 4

- (1) The organiser is obliged to submit the request for obtaining the consent for organising the prize game in goods and services no later than 30 days before the day of the beginning of the prize game.
- (2) The request referred to in paragraph 1 of this article may be submitted in written or electronic form, with documentation, which according to the Law on Games of Chance (“Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia”, No. 18/20) shall be submitted with the request.
- (3) In the request for obtaining consent for organising a prize game in goods and services, in addition to data on the name and registered address of the applicant, the organiser is obliged to state the amount of the prize fund with the specification of prizes, as well as the duration of the prize game.

Article 5

(1) Along with the request for obtaining the consent for organising the prize game, the following documentation shall be submitted:

- 1) the decision of the designated body of the organiser on organising the prize game;
- 2) the decision on the registration in the appropriate register;
- 3) the rules of the prize game;
- 4) evidence of the value of the prize fund.

(2) The Administration ex officio obtains data from official records and the applicant is not obliged to submit the document referred to in paragraph 1, item 2 of this article, unless the applicant explicitly states that he will obtain that information himself.

(3) The documents referred to in paragraph 1, items 1 and 3 of this article shall be submitted as originals or certified transcripts, while other documents shall be submitted as copies.

Article 6

(1) The organiser is obliged to make the rules of the prize game in goods and services in accordance with the regulation that regulates in more detail the conditions, i.e. the content, of the rules of games of chance.

(2) The rules of the prize game cannot be changed during the duration of the prize game.

(3) The Administration shall submit the rules of the prize game to the minister of finance, for the purpose of giving consent, in accordance with Article 109, paragraph 2 of the Law on Games of Chance.

(4) The organiser who has obtained consent for organising a prize game in goods and services is obliged to publish the rules of the prize game in at least one daily newspaper distributed throughout the territory of the Republic of Serbia and submit proof of publication to the Administration within three days from the date of publication and at least eight days before the start of the prize game.

Article 7

(1) After the end of the prize game, the organiser submits to the Administration a report on determining the results of the game, which, in addition to information on the president and members of the commission, contains in particular:

- 1) data on allocated profits and their value;
- 2) data on the winners in accordance with the law governing the protection of personal data;
- 3) data on the place, time, manner and procedure of drawing, i.e. the determining of the winnings, as well as the supervision over the procedure.

(2) The report on determining the results of the game shall be submitted in writing or electronically.

Article 8

On the day this regulation enters into force, the regulation on the manner of determining the fulfilment of conditions for obtaining consent for organising a prize game in goods and services and the manner of reporting on the results of the prize game in goods and services ("Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia", No. 129/04) shall cease to be valid.

Article 9

This regulation shall enter into force on the eighth day from the date of its publication in the "Official Gazette of the Republic of Serbia".
